Don PX Convento 1959

Bodegas Toro Albalá

Aguilar de la Frontera – D.O. Montilla-Moriles

THE WINERY

Founded in 1844, occupying Aguilar de la Frontera's former power station in 1922. In 1970 Toro Albalá was the first Montilla producer to commercialize bottled dessert Pedro Ximénez and remains the world's only specialist in 100% Vintage PX. Impeccable and authentic Fino, Amontillado and Oloroso containing only the natural alcohol from fermentation are produced by the classic solera method.

THE WINE

A wine of recent discovery and bottling reputed to be even more concentrated than the 1961.

IN THE PRESS

Don PX Pedro Ximénez Gran Reserva “Convento” 1959 “Dark and brooding in color, this is surprisingly fresh and light, combining both fresh and dried fig, grape, raisin and molasses aromas and flavors. Fine balance and length... —92 points”

– Thomas Matthews, Wine Spectator, Nov 15, 2005

DETAILS OF WINEMAKING & VITICULTURE

Grapes: 100% Pedro Ximénez

Vineyards: Bodegas Toro Albalá owns significant vineyard acreage in Aguilar de la Frontera and Moriles, exclusively Pedro Ximénez vines planted in chalky-white albariza soils.

Winemaking: Select lots of Pedro Ximénez are destined for oak barrels, sealed and left for decades in single-vintage state. After a minimum of 25 years, vintages are selected for release only when they have attained classic character. This wine was bottled in 2004 having spent 45 years in barrel concentrating it's flavors.

Production: extremely limited

Alcohol: 17.0%
