ADEGAS MORGADÍO

D.O. Rías Baixas — Albeos-Creciente

THE WINERY

Morgadío is the easternmost inland estate in D.O. Rías Baixas, located in the subdistrict of Condado do Tea. Albariño's revelation as one of the wine world's noble white varieties is due in large part to work done at this property from the mid '80s to the mid '90s.

THE WINE

A full-bodied, serious, dry Albariño similar to its sibling Morgadío incorporating wines made from the first pressing in a comparatively softer and more floral style.

DETAILS OF WINEMAKING & VITICULTURE

- Grapes: 100% Albariño
- Vineyards: Situated on sandy granite soils that overlook the Miño river, the Morgadío vineyard totals 143 acres. Among the first vineyards in Rías Baixas to be replanted in 1984, the vines are mature and low yielding.
- Winemaking: Fermented in temperature controlled stainless steel tanks allowing the purity and freshness of ripe Albariño to show its best.
- Winemaker: Alejandra Nores
- Alcohol: 12.5%
